1. Referencing Modification P00039 effective February 27, 2002. On Page 3, Paragraph 2, DELETE Paragraph K. 2 in its entirety, and replace with:

2. For each delivery order, the Service Program shall first seek to obtain its WRM requirements from its primary PV in accordance with the SOW. Under certain conditions, the Service Program may place a WRM order with its secondary PV. These include when the primary PV is unable to supply any or all of the WRM items because:

a. the WRM item, and/or its acceptable functional equivalent, is being ordered within the eight week grace period (as defined in the WRM Support Provisions modification P00029, effective September 21, 2001,) and the primary PV kills the order, and/or;

b. that delivery order(s) was issued within the thirty days (fourteen days for AEF requirements) allowed to replenish (or refresh) supplies from an earlier delivery order, and no acceptable functional equivalent is available, and/or;

c. the WRM item(s) is confirmed as "NOT stocked" from the primary PV, and the selecting Service rejected the proposed functional equivalent (items under this condition are not listed on the current WRM Requirements' Diskette at the time the order is placed.)

If any of the above conditions exists, then the Service Program may place the WRM order with its secondary PV for the exact item(s), or the acceptable functional equivalent item(s). The order shall be placed in accordance with the terms of the SOW, especially Sections XIX and XX, for those item(s) the primary PV is unable to supply.
